I would like to get the progress of this task. I have read all of the progress properties on the task, but I just can't find the one I am looking for. Is there a way to retrieve the progress of this task? Thanks A: Most.NET solutions are always looking for the TPL Version (from the original question). Check that the task is still not running when you get its progress information: public partial class Form1 : Form { ... private void button1_Click(object sender, EventArgs e) { Task task = Task.Factory.StartNew(() => { // do your stuff // Get the current task Task t = Task.FromResult(0); int progress = (int)t.Progress; // Cancel the task t.Wait(); Console.WriteLine(progress); }, Task
