One of the biggest and most famous motocross events in the world, the Daytona Six Hours ended in controversy and probably not a happy weekend for the Verizon team. Unfortunately, the lead changed multiple times between the Konter and the Honda of Andy Danter. In fact, a few times, it was a Konter in the lead! Matt Bisceglia was the only rider that stayed with the Honda rider to the end! We had a small group of riders represented in the top ten, but with just a handful of the top guys making it through the race, overall we can't be too happy with the results. Congratulations to Mike Webb on winning the Triple Crown of Motocross with his third Moto X title. George Easton and Chris Forsberg are still chasing their first win of the year.
